"The spirituality on that mountain was awesome," says Jack W, commenting on the 29th Annual Maine Area Round-Up, July 14-16 at Sugarloaf Mountain. This is Jack's 14th straight round-up.

"It was packed," he continues. He guesses that there were well over 1000 people, a lot without nametags.

"I was impressed with the way it was put together," Jack says. He especially liked the number of workshops and activities. "The meetings were all packed together, which I really liked."

Jane W., attending her third round-up, agrees that it was "well organized—well put together." "I love the spin-off workshops," she says enthusiastically.

"Bob H's talk was worth the price of admission," Jane adds. Bob H. is a local minister from Jefferson who spoke, among other things, about his ministry to jails. He was one of the only local speakers at the Round-Up and "really terrific."

Service Opportunities
