Reaching Out the Hand of AA in Corrections

For our sisters and brothers in jail and prison, seeing and hearing the caring, concern, and fellowship of AA gives hope and saves lives.

More than a dozen new volunteers have been approved as one-time speakers at the Gull Group at the Bolduc Correctional Facility (BCF).

More than 60 volunteers have been approved and trained for the Knox County Jail BUT groups are still missing their commitments.

The Gull Group at BCF has added a Sunday evening meeting. Volunteers are encouraged to attend either meeting as often as possible.

At the Maine State Prison (MSP) in Warren, AA inmates are reaching out by bringing meetings and sponsorship to inmates isolated in the Special Management Unit.

The Corrections Committee is actively seeking contributions to purchase literature for corrections facilities, Look for the Pink Cans. They are also planning a Freedom From Bondage conference in October. If you would be willing to help with this and other corrections outreach, please contact Robbie H (chair), Mary C, Peter L, or Bob C.

Maine Area Round-Up

Inspiration, fellowship, and fun will be featured at the 29th Annual Maine Area Round-Up, July 14-16 at Sugarloaf Mountain, Carrabassett Valley, Maine. The theme this year is "A Design for Living."

AA and Al-Anon speakers from North Carolina, Texas, New Brunswick (Canada), Ohio, and Mississippi will provide insight and inspiration.

Activities include an on-going Alcahthon, Sing-a-long, two dances, Area officers skit, and Old-Timers' luncheon. Workshops include "Job or No Job—Wife or No Wife," "Recovery Behind Locked Doors," and "We Are Not a Glum Lot."

For more information, brochures are available at many meetings or contact Lisa L., Registrar, at (207) 205-0486 or email llawry@maine.rr.com.
